

FRONTIER information notice

The following data protection information notice outlines the criteria by which FRONTIER collects, manages and uses the personal data of users and stakeholders in engagement activities, and in e-mail subscriptions for the distribution of press releases and FRONTIER news:

Identity of controller / Data Protection Officer

EURECAT

Purpose of processing

Processing of personal data is needed for the efficient management of the FRONTIER user group activities.

Type of data processed

Only the following data are collected:

- E-mail address
- Name
- Surname
- Gender
- Profession
- Sector/category
- Country

Pledge of anonymity

Any information you may contribute as part of the FRONTIER user and stakeholders' activities will be used only for research purposes (FRONTIER project, GA732130) and in ways that will not reveal who you are. When we process the personal data that is collected, we always observe the rules laid down in the applicable data protection laws. Your data will not be disclosed publicly by us, nor transferred to any third parties without your consent. Directly identifying information (e.g. names, addresses) will be safeguarded and maintained under controlled conditions. You will not be identified in any publication from this study.

Recipients of the data processed

Personal data may be accessed only by the FRONTIER staff dealing with the organization of the distribution of FRONTIER newsletter, press releases, events, and any relevant FRONTIER communications.

Data transfers

Data will not be transferred to any third organization.

Protection and security measures

All personal data collected are internally processed only by designated FRONTIER administrators or agents and stored on servers which abide by the [Name of the partner in charge / DPO] security rules and standards.

Retention period

Personal data will be erased as soon as it will no longer be needed for the purpose of the managing of the efficient distribution of FRONTIER newsletter, press releases, events, and any relevant FRONTIER communications. FRONTIER data will not be retained beyond December 2024.

Lawful processing

All personal data provided to FRONTIER are dealt with in compliance with Regulation (EC) N° 45/2001 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 18 December 2000 on the protection of individuals with regard to the processing of personal data by the Community institutions and bodies and on the free movement of such data.

Furthermore, all personal details received will be dealt with in accordance with the Organic Law of Personal Data Protection 15/99 of 13 December, and with the other regulations in force in [the relevant country]. [Name of the partner / DPO / legal information] has a file registered in the Data Protection Agency in [the relevant country] with registry No. [No. of registry].

The data subject's rights and recourse

If you wish to access correct or delete your personal data, please get in touch with the FRONTIER corresponding Data Protection Officer.

Should the conflict not be resolved by the Controller or the Data Protection Officer you may lodge a complaint with the European Data Protection Supervisor at any time:

Website <http://www.edps.europa.eu> E-mail: edps@edps.europa.eu .